FIG. 10A

Diagram illustrating a form layout (FIG. 10A). The form consists of a rectangular container. On the left side, there are three rectangular input fields, each labeled with the reference numeral 61. To the right of these input fields are three sets of horizontal lines, each set labeled with the reference numeral 62. Below the input fields and the horizontal lines, there are three vertical ellipses (three dots) indicating continuation.

Diagram illustrating a form layout (FIG. 10B). The form consists of a rectangular container. On the left side, there are five numbered lines (1, 2, 3, 4, 5) for text entry, each labeled with the reference numeral 71. Below these numbered lines, there are three vertical ellipses (three dots) indicating continuation. In the bottom right corner of the container, there is a rectangular input field labeled with the reference numeral 72.
